

Please do not bow to pressure from the Consumers Bankers Association to allow them to weaken our excellent Do Not Call law in Indiana. This law has been extremely effective in protecting the privacy of Indiana's citizens in our own homes in the evenings when we are tired and want to relax. After all, Clarence Darrow did not say "A man's home is his castle except when banks hire expensive lobbyists to change a perfectly good law."